

When We Two Were In Love

Song

Words and Music

by

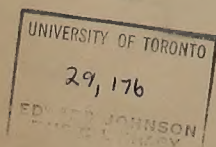

PHILIP E. NETTEN

Price 50 cents.

Published by

The Nordheimer Piano & Music Co.

MONTREAL CANADA.

When we two were in love

Words & Music by PHILIP E. NETTEN.

Moderato.

mf

dim.

When we were on - ly six - teen dear - ie, Those Ah! life has changed us both since then dear, p And hap - py days when all the world seemed fair. The now we say we love, may be we do, p But sun shone bright, and sweet the birds were sing - ing, And then, the birds, the sun - shine, and the flowers, dear p 'Twas breath of fair - est flow - ers filled the air; Then they who told us, yet we nev - er knew. Oh!

came a day, my life's one day, dear, The sun still shone but it was clear for - to go back through all the years dear, To day, its joys and sor - rows all for - got, The birds still sang, but on - ly in your got, Back to the birds, the sun - shine and the voice dear. Ah! we two were in love and knew it not.

flowers dear, Back to the day we loved and knew it not.

CHORUS. (Small notes for second voice - ad lib.)Slow and soft.

Oh! could we on - ly dream our-selves a - way dear, — How fast we'd rall has - ten to that dear Old Spot a tempo The — rall sun - shine, and the birds, and that sweet day dear, — a tempo When p we two were in love, and knew it p not.

CHORUS. (Invisible Quartet, ad lib.)

Oh! could we on - ly dream our-selves a - way dear, How fast we'd Oh! could we on - ly dream our-selves a - way dear How fast we'd

Oh! could we on - ly dream our-selves a - way dear, How fast we'd has - ten to that dear old spot The has - ten to that dear That dear old spot rall.
 has - ten to that dear That dear old spot

sun - shine and the birds and that sweet day dear, When
 That sweet day dear, When
 That sweet day dear, When we two were in love, and knew it not.

 we two were in love, and knew it not. and knew it not.
rall.
 we two were in love, and knew it not. and knew it not.

